

This class is for students who have already completed Home Economics 1. Students will learn to put in a sleeve, a collar, and make button holes as well as learn to put a zipper into a garment. In the cooking section students will learn meal preparation as well as pie crust and bread or roll making.