Instructor: Mr. Van Dyke
Pre-requisite: Two Years of Computers
This class will teach students to become storytellers and communicators in today's multimedia environment. Students will produce various video productions that will benefit the entire CCS community, such as school highlights, special announcements, Senior graduation videos, and more. Students will be responsible for planning, shooting, and editing of projects. Grading will be based on student performance on assigned projects.