

In home design we will be looking at the importance of a family from a Biblical world view. We will also be covering skills needed for a home including: budget, basic interior design, entertaining (includes some cooking), and personal care.